Two Citizens of Henry County
Killed.

On Tuesday a thief named Welch, in company with another of like ilk, both armed, went to the residence of Mr. Geo. D. Dickins, in Henry county, and robbed him of a fine gold watch, a large sum of money, etc., and left the premises, going in the direction of Port Royal. Mr. D. armed himself and followed them to Mr. Granville Cobbin's, where they had been and robbed him also. Mr. Dickens and Mr. Cobbin, with two others, started in pursuit of the robbers and came upon them next morning in a barn. They opened fire upon it and Welch fired upon the party in return and shot Mr. D. and Mr. C. The other two men escaped unharmed. The thieves made their escape. The wounded men were taken to their homes, where they both died from the effects of their wounds. Both were well known in the county, Mr. D. being the first United States Provost Marshal the county ever had, and both were good and reliable citizens. We have heard several rumors concerning the affair, but give the above as being the most reliable. We hope neither of the men were killed.

Negroes Done For.

The 12th regiment United States colored infantry are on duty at the military prison in this city. The presence of Major Williams with his safe filled with greenbacks, among them on Wednesday, caused many a row of ivory to slide, and many a pair of head-lights to glister. He paid them off in full and left them rejoicing in and around the prison. We were of the opinion that niggers, especially those whose noses resembled hand-bellows, or frogs with their hind legs cut off, could stand the smell of anything that man or beast could stomach. Chloroform knocks them. No sooner had the paymaster gone than the news of the payment reached the ears of a posse of negro wenches in the neighborhood, and they no sooner resolved to "go for den niggers."

Night came on and the wenches came out, each the possessor of enough chloroform to put a mile to sleep so that they could steal his teeth without hurting him. The following cases were tried before the commission yesterday: Saml. Bolling, charged with embezzlement. The case will be concluded to-day. Before court martial, Martin V. Owens, a soldier, was tried on the charge of murder. His case was continued.

The association of Colored Odd-Felows were out in a funeral procession yesterday. No music accompanied them.

The 44th Wisconsin regiment, 12 men, stationed at Paducah, were ordered to be mustered out of the service yesterday.

MILITARY COMMISSION.—Lieut. Colonel Cox is now filling the position of Judge Advocate. Lieut. Smith, having been acting in his place for some time, is making preparations to quit the service and go home. The following cases were tried before the commission yesterday: Saml. Bolling, charged with embezzlement. The case will be concluded to-day. Before court martial, Martin V. Owens, a soldier, was tried on the charge of murder. His case was continued.

PILOTS' CONVENTION.—LAST DAY.—The Convention was called to order at 9 o'clock, by the president. A resolution was offered by R. G. Baldwin, to the effect that the tariff of wages asked by the members of the different associations represented, does not apply to boats chartered or owned by the United States Government.

A resolution was passed that this Convention recognize no association unless it is regularly organized, and adopts the proceedings of this Convention.

A resolution was passed, making it the duty of the secretaries of the different associations to report to the inspector of the port, any pilot who shall be drunk on a boat. The Convention then adjourned sine die.

The next meeting of the Convention will be held in St. Louis, on the second Monday of August, 1866.

It is reported that James Robinson, the great circus rider, was killed, a few days ago, in Southern Kentucky, by falling from his horse.

Dick Moore has on hand, and is regularly receiving, the best varieties of peaches, melons, apples, and all kind of fruit for hotel and family use, pickles, cucumbers, peppers, &c. Give him a call; he can serve you. His place is on Fourth street, near Green, opposite Masonic Temple.

Yesterdays negro would grab their noses in one hand and their money in the other, whenever a negro wench came near them, but they were spending it carelessly, believing that they had better spend it while they had a chance; for, in the language of one of them, "If night comes an' you boys got any left, den female niggers come 'round besh wad dat stan' sted it be east cent."

General Court Martial Orders
No. 63.

1. Before a General Court-Martial which convened at Paducah, Kentucky, April 10, 1865, pursuant to Special Order No. 21, dated March 20, 1865; Special Orders No. 85, paragraphs 6 and 7, dated May 30, 1865, from Headquarters Department of Kentucky, Louisville Kentucky, and of which Lieutenant Colonel Wm. P. Moore, 49th Illinois Volunteers, is President, the following persons were arraigned and tried:

John R. Shaw, Captain, 9th U. S. Colored Heavy Artillery. Acquitted. Absent without leave.

James C. Jackson, Captain, Surgeon, 1st U. S. Colored Heavy Artillery. Acquitted. Disbanded.

David Haines, company B, 11th U. S. Colored V. Cavalry. Disbanded.

Charles J. Deshler. To forfeit all pay and allowances due him, and to be dismissed from the service. John H. High, Company B, 2d Illinois Light Artillery. Acquitted.

Charles J. Larvey. Disbanded.

John McMahon, better known as the "Wild Irishman," who was tried before the military commission on the charge of being a guerrilla; was sent to Frankfort yesterday afternoon, to serve a term of ten years at hard labor in the penitentiary.

The people of Indians are all more or less attending the Harbor celebration at Michigan City. New Albany has a modified delegation there doing the honors of the city. Big thing, doubtless, but the people can't see it.

The postoffice has been established at West Baden, Indiana. Persons visiting that famous watering place can get the daily papers with promptness and regularity.

BRALVES.—Fresh and glittering with the spray of the sea, juicy, ripe and luscious, are displayed at Walker's. The men austerer of men will be glad to renew their acquaintance with these fresh oysters.

LIEUT. HALEY'S BAND.—This excellent band, under the direction of Lieut. D. W. Hale, was out serenading last night, and were charmed with their delightful music. As a young band it has no superior, and it seems that each performer masters his instrument with perfect control, altogether playing in perfect time and issuing the most perfect harmony. The "little drummer" is a master in himself, and, unlike his drum, "is hard to beat." May Hale's band will be glad to renew their acquaintance with him among them.

OUR friend, R. Brown, advertises that the best blue grass farms in this part of Kentucky. It is conveniently located, and is near the line of the contemplated railroad from Louisville to Cincinnati.

An unfortunate difficulty occurred yesterday between Messrs. Wilson & Fowler, proprietors of the Young American, on Third street, which culminated in a painful but not dangerous wound, inflicted on Mr. Fowler, from a pistol in the hand of Mr. Wilson. The ball entered the temple, and followed the skull, under the skin, fortunately not penetrating or fracturing the bone. The ball was extracted by Dr. Brady.

OUR friend, R. Brown, advertises that the best blue grass farms in this part of Kentucky. It is conveniently located, and is near the line of the contemplated railroad from Louisville to Cincinnati.

It is Maj. Gen. Jeff. C. Davis, and not Maj. Gen. J. E. D. who has been ordered to report to Maj. Gen. Palmer, as has appeared in the papers elsewhere.

FINE FRUIT.—H. S. Duncan has our thanks for the following specimens of peaches: Ward's Free, Crawford's Late and Catharine Cling; and also for the following varieties of pears: Bartlett's Flemish Beauty and Sackel, all of which were very fine. Mr. Duncan always has a large lot on hand at his stand on Fourth street, between Main and Market.

There are upwards of two hundred negro refugees in camp at Chattanooga, Tenn. Many of them are in a fix, soon to be in Jim's "limbo." Conclusion, horse gone, "in happy; Jim's wife sorry "dey didn't put da nigga in de hole day dog in de woods" ought to be in dar long "dey dis." Several white fellows, unsatisfied with twenty-five dollars. LATER.—Jim promises to take the cash and go North if they let him out; Jim's wife is willing. That's all.

STEALING A PISTOL.—Yesterday morning Officer Justis arrested a negro by the name of Irvin, for stealing a pistol.

Last night Officer C. Glass arrested a negro woman named Nancy, who is a maid at the Provost Marshal's office, leaving for Logansport, Indiana, where he resides. Joy go with you, "PICKWICK," and hasten back.

J. Wat. Lurton has our thanks for favors.

ARREST OF HORSE THIEVES.—Yesterday a man by the name of L. P. Chambers, came to this city with two good horses, which he disposed of for $80. The owner soon afterwards came along and, recognizing his property, took it. The facts were made known to the police and Detective Bligh arrested Chambers. The horses were stolen back of New Albany. Chambers has been taken to Indiana for trial.

IN THE AFTERNOON.—Officers Gilchrist and Tiller arrested Jno. Bright and Samuel Smith, alias James Moore alias Miller, who had in their possession a horse that was stolen from Bowlinggreen. The parties were arrested at the Planter's Hotel, of late a large number of stolen horses have been disposed of in this city, and the police are determined to ferret the affair out and arrest the parties engaged in the business.

SUSPECTED FELONS.—Judging from the number of arrests made upon this charge yesterday, we would incline to the opinion that the thieves who, for some time, have given Louisville a wide birth, are now coming in this direction to run their nefarious business. The police, who are ever efficient, are on the lookout for them, and if they escape here they will be lucky. Yesterday the following persons were furnished board at Castle Thomas, who were known to the public as suspected characters: L. D. Chambers, arrested by D. T. Bligh; John Bright and Samuel Smith, arrested by Officers Tiller and Gilchrist; and John Staley and Wm. Taylor, arrested by C. Ovington and Geo. Snyder. His honor, Judge Harbridge, will dispose of their cases this morning.

W. Orr was arrested by Officers O'Connell and Wiley, and W. Barber was arrested by Watson.

"RUN, NIGGER, RUN."—Passes were issued yesterday to the usual number, 100, niggers, who prefer living on mackerel and codfish to bacon and beans:

Up de Nere where freedom stans,

Des niggers risk wid open arms

To stans themselves to deff."

THE association of Colored Odd-Felows were out in a funeral procession yesterday. No music accompanied them.

MISSING.—Wm. McCarty, a lad about fifteen years of age, residing in Bardstown, has been missing since Saturday evening last. He started from Shepardsville to Bardstown, on the Bardstown train, and got on the Lebanon train, at the Bardstown junction, and took back to Louisville. He has relatives in this city, but neither they nor their friends have heard of him since Saturday. He is said to be quite well, with light hair and gray eyes; quite depiritual, and does not use liquor or tobacco. He had on a white silk hat, and soft of thin cotton clothing. He had no money nor change of clothing, as his carpet-sack was taken on to Bardstown. Any information of the missing lad, if left at this office, will be given to the book-keeper at the Louisville Hotel, will be gratefully received by his friends.

WHAT a wonderful instrument! Schumacher Piano is! Agency at 9 West Jefferson street (old No. 310).

ONE of the rescued passengers on the Glasgow, Rev. Mr. McLaughlin, died on Friday from the effects of the shock upon his nervous system. He went on board an invalid.

New York, Aug. 17.

The Herald's Quebec correspondent gives some rather startling facts respecting affairs in the British provinces. The Canada debt exceeds $75,000,000, upward of three-fourths of which has been incurred in the last ten years. Financial affairs are also represented, to be in a very ticklish condition.

New York, Aug. 17.

Preston, King yesterday executed his bonds as Collector of the Post of New York. His bonds are $1,000,000. His bondsmen are Andrew Carrigan and R. M. Blatchford, who justify in $200,000 each. The bonds were executed by ex-Judge Botts; he has subsequently admitted, who will enter upon the duties of his office on the 1st of September next.

New York, Aug. 17.

But little additional has been developed concerning the great defalcation, and yesterday's action of the court are now estimated at $500,000, and R. Munford, whose failure to meet his engagements was announced some days since, has been arrested on a charge of giving checks to banks which he had no funds.

His operations involve, however, a loss of only about $100,000.

The Times' Washington special says the Times' Washington special says another phase in the city. The Washington socials, who reside in the aristocratic locality Fourteenth street and Massachusetts avenue, object to the colors which are now in vogue. The President, General Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, they beseech him to have them removed, and assign, among other reasons, that it will depreciate the price of real estate.

The Wertz trial went over again today, and it may not begin for a week. It seems, after all, the prosecution is not fully ready.

It is now evident is constantly changing, and which will undergo changes in the charges and specifications.

The Herald's special says all soldiers now in the field, with the single exception of those in the military division under General Sherman, have taken a field pass with costs and billets three years old, $200 subscription, $100 for the $100 added, provided to or more, start, four or more to the 50th. Total, $100.
